

DINING ON TURRAKANA / TASMAN PENINSULA

Oirthir
Adam Gibson

— Here are some refuelling options while road-tripping on Turrakana / Tasman Peninsula in southern Tasmania. These eateries are uniquely Tasmanian, with a focus on fresh, seasonal and regional ingredients and warm hospitality. Bookings are recommended; check venue websites for opening hours and other details.

Bangor Vineyard Shed, Dunalley

Family-owned vineyard offering tastings, light meals, coffee and cake.

1830 Restaurant & Bar, Port Arthur Historic Site

Casual dining with views of the penitentiary at the historic site's visitor centre.

Port Arthur Lavender Farm

Light meals, including lavender-inspired fare. Dine in or take away.

Bream Creek Vineyard

One of Tasmania's pioneer vineyards, with tastings and Maria Island views.

Oirthir

Fine dining pairing culinary passion with local produce, farm and ocean views.

On the Bay Restaurant

— Stewarts Bay Lodge

Fresh seafood and warming log fires by the waterfront at Stewarts Bay.

Lufra cafe and Bistro

Casual dining and sunset views over Pirates Bay at Teralina / Eaglehawk Neck.

Oirthir @ Adam Gibson

Bangor Vineyard Shed @ Adam Gibson

#discovertasmania
fb.com/tasmania
@tasmania
@tasmania
塔斯马尼亚旅游局官博

discovertasmania.com.au
tassietrade.com.au

TOURISM
TASMANIA