WELCOME TO TASMANIA

WE CAN'T WAIT TO SHARE OUR ISLAND
WITH YOU.

© Andrew Wilson

—— Australia's most southerly state is no ordinary place. And Tasmanians are no ordinary people. Geographic isolation has contributed to unique biodiversity – globally significant and dazzling in its beauty – and has fostered a community of creative, down-to-earth, resourceful people who make time to make you feel welcome. Seasonality and hospitality go hand in hand. One of the joys of travelling in Tasmania is tasting farm and ocean-fresh produce, along with the ease of meeting the makers at cellar doors, farm gates and local markets.

You'll soon see that when we do things, we like to do them our way. Take our distillers, using native botanicals and, in some cases, leftover machinery to make some of the best spirits in the world. Hop on a ferry to witness an alternative universe of ideas and expression at Mona, a public and provocative private art museum, carved into a headland in the state's south. And join islanders in a packed schedule of events and festivals that celebrate all the good things in life.

More than a third of the island is protected as national parks, reserves and World Heritage areas, and much of it is easily accessible on foot or aboard a cruise. Hike the tallest sea cliffs in the southern hemisphere on the Three Capes Track, and breathe some of the purest air on Earth. Walk in valleys where towering Huon pines grow for thousands of years, where rivers meet rare temperate rainforest, and snowpeaked mountains shadow buttongrass plains.

This is a place for adventure – test yourself on scores of wild mountain-bike trails, tee off on world-class links perched over Bass Strait, cast for wild brown trout in glacial tarns, or visit one of several wildlife sanctuaries to encounter some of our elusive native wildlife.

A journey to Tasmania is a chance to disconnect from the stresses of life, and reconnect with the things that matter.

Come down for air.

Where we are

Australia's only island state lies about 250km across the formidable Bass Strait from Victoria. Next stop south is Antarctica, 3000km away. Surrounded by the Tasman Sea, the strait and the mighty Southern Ocean, Tasmanians breathe some of the cleanest air in the world. The 334 islands of the Tasmanian archipelago sit at latitude 42°S, directly in the path of the Roaring Forties winds.

Tasmania is about the same size as the Republic of Ireland: 315km from east to west and 286km from north to south. There are around 569,800 Tasmanians with almost half living in the state capital of Hobart, established in 1804 and Australia's second-oldest city.

Weather

Tasmania's four distinct seasons deliver different travel experiences year-round. Average maximum temperatures in summer, from December through February, are 17–23°C (63–73°F). Average maximum winter temperatures, from June through August, are 3–11°C (37–52°F). Enjoy beach life and blooming lavender fields in summer, the 'turning of the fagus' in autumn when Australia's only native deciduous tree turns brilliant colours, fish for wild brown trout in spring, and in winter join solstice festivals and warm up around log fires with fine local whisky.

Rainfall varies significantly across the island. Hobart is the second-driest capital city in Australia (after Adelaide), while the west coast has an annual average rainfall of 2400mm, which sustains the island's cool-temperate rainforests.

Getting here

From mainland Australia, there are direct domestic flights into Hobart and Launceston from most capital cities. Domestic flights are also available from Melbourne to Devonport, Burnie, King Island and Flinders Island. Spirit of Tasmania passenger and vehicle ferries operate daily across Bass Strait between Geelong and Devonport. A direct international flight is available seasonally from Auckland to Hobart, providing a one-stop route for North American visitors.

Getting around

Tasmania is prime road-trip territory, with diverse landscapes and excellent road coverage – and never more than a few hours between major towns. Visitors can hire cars or vans, bring their own vehicle from mainland Australia on the Spirit of Tasmania ferry, or join a coach tour or a small escorted group. There are also intercity and regional public bus services.

Rainbow accredited businesses

Businesses across the island have undertaken training to create safe spaces for LGBTQIA+ travellers. For a full list of Rainbow Tasmania Tourism

Accredited operators, visit discovertasmania.com.au/rainbow-accredited.

Wynyard Bus Lines is a family owned and operated business based in both Hobart and the North-West. With more than 40 years' experience in the industry and a fleet that has grown from 14 to over 40 vehicles, we know a thing or two about moving people well.

Services include private charters, cruise ship excursions and extended touring as part of our statewide service. For cruise operators, we provide end-to-end shore excursion logistics, handling large passenger movements with late-model luxury coaches, reliable scheduling and a team that understands the pace and precision that cruise programs demand.
